

The 2017 Art On The Faith Trail Exhibition will be launched by the Dean of St. David's, at St David's Cathedral at 4pm on Friday 16th June.

This year the trail runs from the 16th June to 31st July at: St David's Cathedral; St Hywel, Llanhywel; St Nicholas, St Nicholas village; St Rhian, Llanrhian; St Gwyndaf, Llanwnda; St Brynach, Pontfaen; St David, Llanychaer; St Peter's, Little Newcastle; All Saints, Walton West; St James Great, Walwyn's Castle; St James, Dale; St Peter, Marloes.

There is no overall theme to the exhibition. The "Faith Trail" in the title is a reference to the paths used in ancient times by pilgrims making their way to St David's Cathedral. The exhibition is as diverse as the artists themselves who include: Eliot Baron, Richard Blacklaw-Jones, Martin Crampin, Buzz Knapp-Fisher, Warren Heaton, Diana Hoare, Robert Jakes, Miriam Scott (poet), Louise Payne, Austen Pinkerton, Nigel Sutton, Jean Thomas, Rod Williams and Sarah Williams.

For the latest information about the exhibition visit our web site: www.art-on-the-faith-trail.co.uk

Churches Participating In Art On The Faith Trail 2017

